

Year 1 have been enjoying poems over the last few weeks and really loved Spaghetti, Spaghetti. After reading it, the children chose food they love eating then identified verbs to describe how to eat it. They then wrote sentences remembering to leave spaces between words and to demark their sentences with capital letters and full stops.

Spaghetti! Spaghetti!

by Jack Prelutsky

Spaghetti! spaghetti!
you're wonderful stuff,
I love you, spaghetti,
I can't get enough.
You're covered with sauce
and you're sprinkled with cheese,
spaghetti! spaghetti!
oh, give me some please.

Spaghetti! spaghetti!
piled high in a mound,
you wiggle, you wriggle,
you squiggle around.
There's slurpy spaghetti
all over my plate,
spaghetti! spaghetti!
I think you are great.

Spaghetti! spaghetti!
I love you a lot,
you're slishy, you're sloshy,
delicious and hot,
I gobble you down
oh, I can't get enough,
spaghetti! spaghetti!
you're wonderful stuff.

This week, Years 2, 3 & 4 have begun a Poetry unit in English. We have read 'Bug Chant' by Tony Mitton, performed certain stanzas in small groups and written our own similar poems. We've had a lot of fun! Here are some samples...

Snake Chant Writing Frame

Can you write your own Snake Chant?

Try some of these adjectives: slimy, slippery, spotty, stripy, fat, thin, lean, mean.

Slippery snakes, Spotty snakes,

some with out a name snakes.

thin snakes, lean snakes,

STRIPY snakes like a zebra snakes.

gleaming snakes, sassy snakes,

dirty as a fly snakes.

slow snakes, late snakes,

early as a cheetah snakes.

Good images, Lyla! 😊

Tuesday 22nd October
L.O: To look at features of a poem and compose my own version.

Big cats, small cats
Full like a tree cat.

Helpful cats, unhelpful cats
Crazy lots of cats.

Mean cats, clean cats
Slim, itchy, lean cats

Hot cats, hunched cats
Silly and not cats.

out cats, short cats,
rainy, sparkling shiny cats.

dark cats, fat cats
old fashioned like a pole.

(Read to class)
Some lovely 😊 images, Kit.

Wednesday 23rd October
L.O: To identify and use nouns, adjectives and noun phrases.

The silly boy slipped on a slippery banana skin.
My courageous friend ran fast and slipped in a sassy sock.

Brave cats, calm cats
filthy like dirt cats.

Helpful cats, anxious cats
snoring like a crocodile cats.

Tall cats, short cats
silly like a jack-in-a-box cats.

Young cats, old cats
scary like a spider cats

slow cats, fast cats ugly like an Angora fishcats.
Mum

Some great images, Percy! 😊

Wednesday 23rd October
L.O: To identify and use nouns, adjectives and noun phrases.

The boy slipped on a stinky used washing soap.
My friend tripped over a stinky messy sock.
My teacher fell over a cute non-terrible dog.
My cousin, slipped down a tall

Monday 21st October
L.O: To prepare a poem to read aloud and perform.

Speak clearly.
Make it interesting.
Speak to your audience.
I worked with E. Lodie.

Tuesday 22nd October
L.O: To look at features of a poem and compose my own version.

The cat chort
dark cats, mean cats
adorable, adventurous cats

small cats, big cats
silly like a lion cats.

In Class 3, children have been studying Classic Narrative Poems: The Walrus and the Carpenter by Lewis Carroll. One of the activities they had to do was to focus on Grammar. Children had to write down adverbials. (When an adverbial modifies a verb, it changes the meaning of that verb) and fronted adverbials (words or phrases placed at the beginning of a sentence which are used to describe the action that follows).

Friday 25th October
 40. To write using adverbials, including fronted adverbial

Father William's Day - C

	After night has passed, father hourly summersuits. Outside, father foolishly, ate a goose the whole. Here, quietly, father went outside.
	Everywhere, almost repeatedly, father does something life threatening. Once, father swailed a fish. Inside, father watches badly as the rain pours down outside.
	Like nothing else mattered, father did one hundred summersuits. Since life was short, father spent it pleasantly. Whilst the rain poured, father ate a goose.
	Before after what seemed like years, father ate a goose. Whilst every heart-beat, father was balancing a eel on his nose.

Father William's Day - C

	Father William's woke up today. On his bed upstairs. He got out of his bed quietly. He went down the stairs graciously.
	Father Williams had some food and then went inside his bedroom. He was full of excitement. Once he was outside he did loads of burnabottes. He had a visitor and he sat on a chair. Just as the visitor left father Williams got really excited. Almost the day was over. Father Williams just got really tired. He sat outside for the sunset. Then he cheerfully got up to his bed.

Stars of the Week!

Wow!! Look at our amazing stars of the week. They have impressed so many staff by working hard and tackling challenges all week long! We are so incredibly proud of you all. Well Done!

Football Cards

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have, unfortunately, noticed that football cards are causing some disruptions at school, leading to upset among the children. To ensure a positive learning environment, we will not allow football cards to be brought into school after half term. Please help us by ensuring your child does not bring them to school. Thank you for your understanding.

Kindest regards,

Mrs. Reynecke-Raybould
